

Scenario 8:

The Party

If a youth has mental health problems, a judge will take this into account when deciding upon an appropriate sentence.

The sentence can contain special conditions the youth must follow, such as attending programs and getting help to address mental health issues.